Dear Supporters and Prayer Warriors,

We have been back home in Rankin Inlet for over a month now. It didn't take too long to adjust again to arctic living, and to reconnect with our friends and church folks. We are so thankful for the time we were able to spend in the US and southern Canada over the summer. It was a blessing to fellowship with like-minded believers, and report to our supporting churches what God is doing here in the north.

The cold weather has also returned to the north, and this year marks our 11th winter in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut, Canada. Temperatures have dipped to -15C, and we have already had two blizzards that have blanketed the tundra with snow.

We were not back from our furlough all that long though before we were reminded that Satan does not want to give up his stronghold in the north, and he will use any means possible to water-down the truth of the Gospel. There has been a renewed push for all the churches in town to "work together" in a large evangelistic endeavor. Of course this is not possible since false teaching and practices abound in the other churches in town, and Scripture is clear that light should not be mixed with darkness. We continue to carry out our own soul-winning endeavors while striving to stay true to the whole counsel of God. Would you please take some time to pray that God would help us to be firm, yet compassionate as we stand for truth? Also please pray that God would lead us to those that are hungering for truth.

We praise God for some first-time visitors and some returning visitors in recent weeks, both to the Sunday service as well as the Thursday Bible study. We have also had some high-turnouts for the Sunday School classes too! Please pray for God's Word to be received and believed, and that people would submit to the authority of God's Word in their lives.

Also, please pray for wisdom as we deal with families where sinful choices have caused some serious situations.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support!

Serving the Saviour,

The Nathan Jones family
